

Workshops booked:

Social Work Conference

"Working with Radicalisation" Programme

Friday 26th January 2018

9.30am - 4.00pm

The Studio, 7 Cannon Street, Birmingham, B2 5EP

There is still time to book your place, contact:

Michelle.Jones@stoke.gov.uk

- 9.30 Registration and refreshments
- 10.00 Welcome and Opening Address
Dr Tony Stanley: Chief Social Worker - Birmingham City Council
& Chair of West Midlands Social Work Teaching Partnership
- 10.10 Safeguarding Issues in the context of Counter-Terrorism & The Current Picture in the West Midlands
Superintendent Paul Betts
Head of Prevent, Protect and Prepare
- 10.30 “Professionalised Counter-radicalisation Networks”
Dr Tony Stanley: Chief Social Worker - Birmingham City Council
& Chair of West Midlands Social Work Teaching Partnership
- 11.00 Coffee Break (Served in The Atrium)
- 11.15 Key Note Speaker
Nazir Afzal OBE: Former Chief Crown Prosecutor for NW England and former Chief Executive of Police & Crime Commissioners
- 11.40 Reveal Theatre
Explanation and exploration of the GAME ON Project, it’s origins, it’s history and context and the diverse areas that GAME ON has operated in over the past ten years.
- 12.30 Participatory Approaches to Developing Practice
Surinder Guru, Simon Haworth and Dan Machin
University of Birmingham

- 13.00 Lunch (Served in The Atrium)
- 14.00 Workshops
All workshops will run twice, please book your chosen workshop with Michelle Jones in The Atrium at first coffee break
- 14.00/ 15.00 Workshop 1: Reveal Theatre “Game on”
How to create a strategy to recognise and be able to challenge extreme opinions / views that their clients may exhibit.
Max of 30 delegates - first come first served basis
Room: Smile & Think
- 14.00/ 15.00 Workshop 2: University of Birmingham Participatory Approaches to Developing Practice
Max of 50 delegates - first come first served basis
Room: Inspire
- 14.00/ 15.00 Workshop 3: West Midlands Police Partnership Approaches to Radicalisation
You do not need to book this workshop
Room: Explore
- 14.45 Coffee Break (Served in The Atrium)
- 15.45 Plenary, feedback and close

Reveal
Theatre Company

